DISCORD IN THE CONVENTION.

EXCEPTION TO PHILADELPHIA IDEA OF WHITE WOMEN SOUTH.

President Hartgrove Makes a Speech—Fears That the Convention May Have a Bad Ending—No Philadelphians in Attendance.

Philadelphia, June 12.—Discord has entered into the Southern Industrial Convention. The delegates took exception to the Philadelphians' idea that the poor white women of the South needed education more than the negro. This morning President Hartgrove, of Shreveport, La., spoke.

"For the first time," he said to forty persons present, "I feel misgivings as to the success of this convention. A good start was made, but I fear it will have a bad ending. We of the South are familiar with New York, Baltimore and Boston, but know nothing of Philadelphia. We never see a traveling man from Philadelphia in the South. We know nothing of your goods and you make no attempt to get our business. Send your commercial agents down there so that a real commerce would grow up. This would be better than talking so much and doing nothing. There are few Philadelphians here this morning. What new faces are in the hall are new arrivals from the South.

DIED IN HOSPITAL.

Death After an Operation—Epidemic of Measles at Proximity.

Proximity, N. C., June 12.—Mr. J. D. Campbell, boss carder and spinner, who has been sick with chills for some time, has gone to Gold Hill to spend two weeks recuperating.

Mrs. B. A. Baker, who has been conducting the boarding house, has moved to 115 West Market street, where she will continue to run a boarding house. Her place in the boarding house here will be filled by Mrs. Ella Garrett.

Mrs. T. F. Foster died in a hospital in Baltimore Monday. She went there to have an operation performed, but died shortly after the operation was performed.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Harrells died at the residence of its parents at Revolution Monday afternoon. The remains were interred in the graveyard here yesterday afternoon.

There is quite an epidemic of measles among the operatives here. About fifty cases so far, have been reported.

The ponds, both at Proximity and at Revolution have been cleaned out, and it is hoped that the chills, which have been so prevalent for some time, will be abated.

High Point Happenings.

High Point, June 11.—Eugene, the 17-year-old son of Rev. J. M. Hilliard, died here this morning after an illness of a day or so. He had fever, which together with bowel affection, caused his untimely death. The funeral services will be held tomorrow.

The infant daughter of Mrs. Saunders died today.

Mr. E. Armfield left last night for Philadelphia, where he goes to attend the Southern Industrial Convention. Mr. Armfield was selected by the Southern Furniture Journal, of this place, to speak on the subject of manufacturing in the South.

Miss Lizzie Bourne, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. H. C. Field and children, left yesterday for Ferguson, Ky., the home of Miss Bourne.

DISSOLUTION NOTICE.

The firm trading under the name of Merritt, Brower & Co., is this day dissolved by mutual consent. Mr. C. E. Brower retiring. The business will be continued by the remaining members of the firm, J. W. Merritt and E. P. Wharton, with the addition of Mr. C. C. Johnson, trading under the name of Merritt, Johnson & Co. The above firm of Merritt, Johnson & Co. assume all liabilities and collect all accounts of the former firm.

JUDGE MOORE'S CHARGE

The Four Emma Postoffice Robbers Found Guilty.

An Asheville Special to The Charlotte Observer says:

This morning about 10 o'clock the jury returned a verdict of guilty in the Emma postoffice burglary cases. The defendants, Cates and Johnson, White, and Foster and Mills, colored, were each found guilty of burglary in the first degree.

Only one legal hanging has occurred in Buncombe county since the civil war. Burglary being a capital offense, the verdict in these cases is the principal subject of conversation here today. A great crowd was present when the jury came into the court room, and hundreds of eyes closely scanned the faces of the prisoners, as each juror, when the poll was taken, answered "guilty." If the condemned men felt any inward emotion there was very little outward evidence of the fact.

The cases went to the jury yesterday afternoon about six o'clock but no decision was reached until this morning because two of the jurors hesitated to return a verdict of burglary in the first degree, regarding all of the prisoners. Mills and Gates did not enter the building when the assault was made on the postmaster, and therefore many presumed that they would escape with a lighter sentence. This presumption grew stronger when Johnson and Foster gave evidence that tended to clear their associates of the charge. This testimony was one of the interesting developments of the trial. It showed that there was indeed honor among thieves. With almost certain death confronting them, Johnson and Foster took the greatest care in their evidence, to leave Gates and Mills guiltless.

It is generally conceded that Judge Moore's charge to the jury was favorable to the State. In a personal conversation with a correspondent of The Observer, Judge Moore explained this. He said that if his instructions had been in behalf of the defense the State would have had no opportunity to appeal, while now the defense has this right and the supposed advantage would be taken of this opportunity. If he was wrong, then the Supreme Court could correct the wrong. Human life and a great principle was involved and he would like to see the cases taken to the higher tribunal. Judge Moore said that these four burglary cases had produced more difficult points of law than any he had ever encountered since his service on the bench. The verdict of guilty was based upon the last decision of the Supreme Court on the subject, to the effect that a person who entered a building may be found guilty of burglary, whether actual sleeping apartments were entered or not. If the decision is sustained, a precedent of great importance will be established.

The defendants have not yet been sentenced. It is taken for granted that there will be an appeal.

REVOLUTION MILL CASE.

Comes up in Court Today and is Continued Until Next Term.

The case, State against the Revolution Cotton Mills came up in court this morning, and was continued. His Honor expressing the hope that it would be settled out of court. The case grows out of their recent order of the county board of sanitation concerning the dam at the Revolution Mills. A full account of the matter was given some time ago in The Telegram.

DEATH IN RANDLEMAN.

Mrs. Walker, Daughter of Rev. J. R. Scroggs, Passes Away.

Mrs. J. O. Walker, of Randleman, died at her home in that place yesterday afternoon. She was a daughter of Rev. J. R. Scroggs, of this city, presiding elder of the Greensboro District. The funeral will take place tomorrow morning at Randleman.

Moonlight Ride.

A party of young folks of the city spent several delightful hours at the Battle Ground last night on what was known as a moonlight picnic. The moon however, failed to show up, but notwithstanding this fact, the crowd had a pleasant time, and returned about midnight.

NOTED CHECK FORGER CAUGHT.

WANTED IN THIRTEEN CITIES FOR FLYING HIS VOCATION.

Desperate Young Man, Who Claims to be the Son of a Boston Banker, Run Down

Chicago, June 10.—Melville Chester, Jr., of Boston, is under arrest on a charge of forgery. Twenty-five charges are said to have been made against him.

Chester was arrested this afternoon by Detectives Seargeants Bock and De Sousa, of the central station, after a chase of over six blocks in the downtown district, and was finally captured in the court yard of the Auditorium Annex after he had given the detectives a desperate fight.

Two weeks ago Capt. Collieran received a message from the chief of police of Kansas City to be on the look out for Chester, and to notify all banking and jewelry firms to be careful in dealing with a man answering Chester's description.

As the detectives were passing along Jackson boulevard to day they saw a man emerge from the store 47 Jackson boulevard. The suspicion of the detectives were aroused, and they decided to place the man under arrest. When Chester reached Wabash avenue he became suspicious of the detectives and ran. The detectives followed him, and pedestrians seeing the trio running, started in pursuit. Chester ran south in Wabash avenue to Harrison street, where he attempted to elude the detectives by boarding a Cottage Grove avenue car. Jumping on the rear platform Chester ran through the car, knocking a woman down as he was attempting to alight at Harrison street.

Seeing the detectives and the crowd in hot pursuit, Chester jumped from the car and ran east on Harrison street toward Michigan avenue, and one of them, Frank Hyde attempted to stop the prisoner, but was struck a blow in the face that felled him to the pavement. Chester ran north on Michigan avenue and to Jackson boulevard, then to Wabash avenue.

Part of the crowd attempted to intercept him at the alley between Michigan and Wabash avenues, but, evidently determined to escape, Chester charged the crowd, knocking several of the men to the pavement, and ran south in the alley.

Almost exhausted from his long run Chester kept going and turned from the alley into Van Buren street, crossing the street, and ran through a small passageway to the rear of the Chicago Club and took refuge in the courtyard in the rear of the Auditorium Annex. Detectives Bock and De Sousa saw Chester run between the buildings and followed. Seeing De Sousa, Chester uttered and oath and sprang at him. They grappled and wrestled, when Detective Bock assisted in overpowering the man.

At the central station Chester admitted to Capt. Collieran that he was the man wanted by the police of several cities. Chester told Capt. Collieran he was the son of Melville Chester, a banker of Boston, Mass., who is connected with the banking firm of Baker Vetter & Chester. He is said to have committed over sixty forgeries in the last six months. He has been eagerly sought after by the police of Memphis, Tenn.; Boston, Mass.; San Francisco, Cincinnati, Louisville, Ky.; Pittsburg, Pa.; New York, Calveston, and Liberty, Mo., where he is said to have attempted to assault the sheriff in that city while the later was attempting to arrest him, and making his escape. He is also wanted in Bloomington, Ill., Normal, Ill.; Gertrude, Oklahoma, and Kansas City.

Chester, it is declared, escaped from the police in Kansas City after a desperate fight, in which he is said to have wounded a policeman. In Gertrude, Okla., while escaping he is said by the police to have shot and seriously wounded a policeman, but not before the policeman had struck him several times with the butt of his revolver, inflicting a deep cut in the back of Chester's head and which he showed to the police tonight.

Chester has been in Chicago but a few days, coming here from Memphis, Tenn., but since his arrival here he is said to have forged checks on over a dozen merchants, the amounts varying from $10 to $150.

GOVERNOR SAMFORD DEAD.

Alabama's Chief Executive, After Several Weeks' Illness Passes Away.

Montgomery, Ala., June 11.—Wm J. Samford, Governor of Alabama, died tonight at Tuscaloosa, Ala., where he has been ill for some time. Disease of the heart was the cause of death.

Governor Samford has been in Tuscaloosa several weeks, having gone there to attend a meeting of the trustees of the State University. He had been ill since before his inauguration as Governor, but it was believed that immediate danger of death was passed. While in Tuscaloosa, however, his illness returned with renewed violence and he became so dangerously sick that the physicians feared to remove him to Montgomery. Yesterday Governor Samford was thought to be improving, but grew worse today and succumbed tonight at 10 o'clock.

Governor Samford was about 55 years of age and was a native of Alabama. He had served in the State Senate and in Congress; was a member of the constitutional convention of 1875 and held other important offices. He was elected Governor in August of last year. Hon W. D. Jelks, president of the State Senate, will succeed him as Governor.

Big Price on Chinaman's Head

San Francisco, June 1.—Collector of the Port Stratton recommended to the Treasury Department today that Su Shih Chin, the Chinese reformer and scholar, be allowed to land under section 6 of the exclusion act, as a trader.

The Chinese authorities in this country are very anxious to keep Su Shih Chin out of this country for political reasons. He is the leader of the reform party which is seeking to place Emperor Kwang Shun on the throne, instead of the Dowager Empress. Pending the decision of the Treasury Department, Su Shih Chin is held at the Pacific Mail dock. Collector Stratton says there is a reward of $50,000 on his head, and he has taken means to protect him from assault by any of the sympathizers of the Dowager Empress.

Should the Treasury Department set aside the recommendation of the collector and decide to send Su Shih Chin back to China, his attorney will apply for a writ of habeas corpus in the United States District Court, on the ground that he is only a political offender, and that the constitution guarantees asylum to offenders of that class. Su Shih Chin is 25 years of age, and is said to be one of the three leading writers of China.

TYPE SETTING TO GO.

New Process Whereby Printing Will be Done by Photography.

There seems to be a likelihood that before long movable types for printing will be done away with altogether, and their functions, hitherto regarded as indispensable in the art, performed by ingenious photographic processes.

The books of the near future, it is predicted, will be made by photography, and it is not improbable that even newspapers will be issued by methods in which the camera and dry-plate will take the place of the font of metal letters and the stereotype from a paper matrix.

This is not mere speculation, says the Saturday Evening Post, inasmuch as the prediction is based upon recently patented inventions of a practical character. The originator of the idea proposes to apply to the reproduction of letterpress a process not very different from that already used in the mechanical manipulation of the pictures.

In his belief, if a picture can be multiplied by photography, there is no reason why the same method should not be employed by a letter press. The way to accomplish this is his own discovery, and it has already been worked out so far that, it is claimed, the camera is ready and able to take up the work which has hitherto been done by the type.

The publisher of the future, instead of having many fonts of heavy and costly type, will be provided simply with a set of square white cards, on each of which is a large black letter, an inch or more in height.

These cards will be placed in a series of horizontal lines on a rack made for the purpose, following copy, so that the letters will read just like those of the text that is to be reproduced. A camera placed in front, will photograph the letters, its distance from them determining the size of the text as it is eventually to appear.

The negative thus made will be developed in the usual manner and from it, just as a picture similarly prepared is printed now sensitized film. It only remains to etch the plate and print from it, just as a picture similarly prepared is printed nowadays.

A machine has already been constructed, which taking the place of the Linotype or mechanical compositor of today, sets up the cards in the rack according to copy and photographs them, one line at a time, the glass sensitive plate moving automatically at such a rate as to take the matter line by line until it is filled.

Then, of course, is removed and developed in a darkroom, whereupon it is ready to transfer its imprint to the metal plate, which is duly etched. The process is simply enough, and so expeditiously performed that within thirty minutes from the first exposure of the negative the zinc plate is ready.

If the discovery does not prove disappointing in its practical usefulness the publisher of the future, whose expensive and heavy burden of type will be replaced by a few photographic machines and an equipment of lettered cards, light and easily stored in small space. The fact that one set of letters is to serve for all sizes of type is of the greatest importance.

One point not to be forgotten is that, by an obvious arrangement, pictures may be photographed on the same plates with the letterpress.

Insane Over Freemasonry.

Paterson, N. J., June 9.—Herman Wolfram, 33 years old, a textile machinist, has been adjudged insane and will be sent to Morris Plains asylum tomorrow. Two years ago he joined Humboldt Lodge of Masons in this city, and since then he has been laboring under a strange hallucination. He got the idea that if he lived up to the teachings of the Masonic order he must get rid of all his earthly possessions. At that time he owned his home in Crooks avenue, worth $1,200, and two lots in Camden, N. J., worth $400.

Against the protests of his wife he sold the property, getting $700 for his home and giving away the Camden property for $1. He coerced his wife into signing the papers. He soon squandered the money, giving up his work in the meantime. For about a year he has neglected his wife and four children who have been in wretched circumstances.

If all the advertisements dealers send out to women were engraved instead of printed they would all have to build bigger stores.

The female mosquitoes do all the biting and the male mosquitoes have to eat grass. But then, nobody expects decency from a mosquito.

The diseases most feared are those which are inherited—handed down from generation to generation, and family to family. By far the most destructive of these is Cancer, which finds the greatest number of its victims among the children and grand-children of those whose blood was tainted with this dreadful malady. You may carry this poison in the blood for years, but as the vital powers begin to wane a slight bruise or cut, wart or mole, sore or pimple may develop into Cancer. From middle life to old age is the time when the slumbering poison is most apt to break out, a sore or ulcer often degenerating into Cancer, and Tumors become more progressive and ulcerate through the skin, the sharp, shooting pains causing the most intense suffering.

The Cancer patient naturally grows despondent as one after another the usual remedies fail, and the sore shows no sign of healing. The impurities that have been accumulating in the system, perhaps for generations, cannot be eliminated nor the poisoned blood made pure by salves, washes and plasters. The proper treatment is to purify and build up the blood, remove the cause, when the sore or ulcer heals, S. S. S. goes directly into the blood, destroys the virus, stops the formation of Cancerous cells and cleanses the system of impurities. What we say of S. S. S. as a cure for Cancer is supported by the testimony of those who have tested it and been restored to health.

Begin in time, don't wait until the blood is so polluted and the system so thoroughly saturated with the poison that no medicine, however efficacious, can check the progress of the disease. If there is a taint in your blood get it out at once, don't wait for some external evidence of it, the appearance of a tumor or ulcer. We have prepared a special book on Cancer which we will mail free. Our physicians are ready to help you by their advice and such direction as your case requires. THE LIGHTNING AT WORK.

Steam power is to be superseded by electricity in the government dock yards at Kiel, Germany.

Electricity is to be used to convey passengers to the top of the Washington monument, Washington, D. C.

The electric fan bids fair to supersede the punkah coolies of India.

The regular price for four coolies to divide up the 24 hours is six cents each. With electrical fans the work can be done for one-third of the cost, and considerable inconvenience may be avoided.

It has been suggested that the electric heaters of trolley cars be connected to the controller on the platform, so that when the highest speed is required the heaters will be cut off. They require some little time to cool off, so that the heating effect will be sufficient. This will reduce the demand for current by the heaters when full speed is necessary. It requires quite a percentage of the total output of the generating plant in the winter to heat the cars.

SCIENCE GLEANINGS.

Large deposits of the rare earths, such as zirconia, thorium, etc., have been located in Central Asia.

Great Britain's contribution to the immense photograph of the heavens, which is being prepared by the leading observatories throughout the world, is making rapid progress at Greenwich observatory.

The report of the Astronomer Royal, the catalogue of stars also being printed from this observatory.

Mr. Albert Wild, of the Royal Society of Great Britain, has been presented with the most highly prized medal. This is awarded for momentous discoveries in science. In the present case it was for the practical demonstration of the indefinite increase of the magnetic and electric forces from the magnet.

The quantities of the modern dynamo are based upon this principle, and is adopted in all modern dynamo.

A Baby's Birth
 is very much like the blossoming of a flower. Its beauty and perfection depends entirely upon the care bestowed upon its parent. Expectant mothers should have the tenderest care. They should be spared all worry and anxiety. They should eat plenty of good nourishing food and take gentle exercises. This will go a long way toward preserving their health and their beauty as well as that of the little one to come. But to be absolutely sure of a short and painless labor they should use

WINE OF CARDUI

How a Woman Suffers.

HOWELL, IND., Nov. 28.
 I will always praise Wine of Cardui. It has done me more good than all the medicines I have ever taken in my life. Please send a book about female diseases to the ladies whose names I enclose.

Mrs. MINNIE STODGHILL.

Wine of Cardui

It isn't necessary for a woman to give particulars. When she says she has "female troubles", other women know what that means. It means days and nights of endless suffering. It means headaches which no tongue can describe. It means that terrible bearing and dragging down in the lower abdomen. It means agonizing backache, and shoulder ache, and arm ache, and aches in the lower limbs. It means nerves on edge—the blues—despondency and loss of hope. It means debilitating drains that the doctors call leucorrhoea. It means martyrdom—sometimes even death seems preferable. And still Wine of Cardui will utterly put those diseases and pains to rout. It has cured thousands of cases when nothing else on earth would. To the budding woman, to the bride, to the wife, to the expectant mother, to those going through the Change of Life, this Vegetable Wine is a blessing.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 12.

The most charitable construction that can be put upon the statement, emanating from Winston, and printed in the morning papers, to the effect that an automobile line was to be established in Greensboro, making half-hour trips on the principal streets of the city, and also a line connecting this city with High Point, Kernersville, and Winston, is what was said of the Charge of the Light Brigade, "Some one has blundered."

COST OF THE HOCUS-POCUS.

The Telegram said something yesterday of the cost of Christian Science. Since writing the article referred to we have come upon the following very interesting editorial in the New York Sun and it adds materially to what has been said regarding the cost of what the Sun calls "Mother Eddy's hocus-pocus":

Mr. William G. Nixon, of Boston, a backslider from Mother Eddy's fold, gives some interesting estimates of the profits of the Christian Science business. Mr. Nixon used to be a bank cashier in South Dakota. He went to Boston and paid Mrs. Eddy $300 for a course of lessons in Christian Science. Subsequently he settled in Boston, and, at Mrs. Eddy's request, became her publisher. He asserts that her "Scriptures," "Health, with Key to the Scriptures," costs $4.00 a copy, and the produce was sold for from $3 to $5.00. That she has sold more than 200,000 copies. Mr. Nixon estimates that she "must have cleared from $300,000 to $400,000 net on the sale of 'Science and Health, alone,'" and still the sales go bravely on. Not merely the faithful but the unbelievers buy the book. It owes its success to curiosity as well as credulity; and it is tremendously advertised. Every death due to the rejection of medical or surgical care and to blind belief in the Eddyite hocus-pocus helps the book in which the Eddyite creed is set down. It is possible that Mrs. Eddy is the best paid author in America, the drawer of the largest royalties.

She has other means of income. She charges $300 for initiating novices into the mysteries of her "Science." Doubtless many well-to-do or rich persons have paid her much more in the transaction of their absolute faith. She says that she has taught personally more than 4,000 persons. Four thousand pupils at $300 a head. There is a snug little fund of $1,200,000. If her figures and Mr. Nixon's figures are correct, she must have made at the smallest calculation at least from $1,500,000 to $1,600,000, and probably much more, out of her books and her lessons. According to Mr. Nixon, she is "a very matter-of-fact woman in all material matters except her theory that there is no matter, and has invested in lane extensively; she can easily be rated now as a very substantial millionaire." Mr. Nixon's knowledge of Mrs. Eddy's publishing business brought him to the conviction that "the whole thing was but one gigantic money-making scheme."

There is no doubt that teaching Christian Science is profitable to the teacher; but certain persons and their money are soon parted and the learners don't complain. Mrs. Eddy doesn't wish to "pauperize" her devotees by giving them Christian Science free of charge.

Sister Eddy is greater than Brigham Young ever was. She can fool people as well and make more out of it than Brigham did.

To's Set Fire to a Tenement.

New York, June 10.—While their sister, Anna, was out buying milk for their breakfast, two little boys, Santo and Philip Martina, set fire to the family's rooms in a tenement house in Oliver street today. Their father and mother had gone to work earlier. The smoke caused a panic in the house, and a policeman and a fireman ran up stairs, and carried out both boys. Santo, only two years old, died. Philip may also die.

No woman will ever believe a man isn't all right if he only keeps some stories to tell her about what one of his little children said the other day.

ADVERTISING COMMENT.

By THE HUSTLER.

Through the courtesy of Mr. C. P. Vanstory, the popular liveryman, the Hustler had the pleasure of a drive with a party of gentlemen out to his magnificent farm near the city limits this morning. Mr. Vanstory is a progressive farmer, especially in the raising of grass and forage for which his land is well suited. While there we were driven across the fields and witnessed the operation of a McCormick mower, which was cutting a wide swath through a heavy growth mixture of grass, oats, and wheat, and doing the work as smoothly and evenly as a pair of barber's clippers would over a fellow's scalp—not leaving a sprig uncut behind it. This machine we were told cuts over something like 17 acres per day and each acre makes about three tons of this excellent food for stock. There appears to be one hundred acres or more entirely under grass, and the heavy crop on this farm dissipates any ideas we may have entertained as to most of the land around Greensboro being a barren waste in which the crawfish is the only thing that thrives.

Messrs. Harry-Belk Brothers Company are making some unusually low figures in their ad today on seasonable goods. This is one of the greatest places in the city for genuine honest bargains and whenever you see them mentioned in the space we sell this firm, you many know it is so.

The Sykes Drug Co. are now handling the celebrated Vade Mecum Springs water, and serve it at their fountain or sell in quantities. See their ad. Among the many firms now represented by their cards in the columns of The Telegram we add that of S. R. Swaim, the wagon maker.

Messrs. J. W. McAlister & Co. continue their interesting demonstrations in making good coffee from the Perfect Brand.

Honor for Dr. Gildersleeve.

Baltimore, Md., June 10.—Dr. Basil L. Gildersleeves, professor of Greek in the Johns Hopkins University, will go to Chicago on Saturday to attend an educational convention. While there he will be given the honorary degree of LL. D. by the University of Chicago.

The University of Chicago has only once before in ten years of existence honored any one with this degree. President McKinley is the only recipient of the degree from Chicago up to the present time, and Prof. Gildersleeve will be the second. It is understood that the degree will be conferred in recognition of his splendid attainments in Greek syntax, and it is granted by vote of the entire governing board of the university.

Prof. Gildersleeve will leave Baltimore next Saturday, and will represent the department of classical studies at a general educational conference which is to be held on the Monday following. Dr. Gildersleeve will make a brief address on the occasion of the presentation of degrees.

Aguinaldo's Successor.

Washington, June 11.—Emilio Zurbano, of Tayabas province, has proclaimed himself the successor of Aguinaldo and "governor of Tayabas and the Philippines," according to a copy of a Manila paper just received at the War Department. Zurbano is said to have always been a rather theatrical insurrectionist and to have sworn to fight the Americans down to the last hole. The publication does not take the Filipino's announcement seriously and warns him that he will find "that the office carries with it certain grave responsibilities which will sooner or later result in heart failure and a sudden demise."

Cody Wants Elks' Home.

Indianapolis, Ind., June 10.—Col. William F. Cody is making an effort to locate the proposed national home for indigent Elks at Cody, a new town in the Big Horn basin, Wyo., which has been recently laid out and named after him. He is appealing personally to the members of the Elks' national home committee, and is also carrying on a large correspondence through his friends, in order to bring every influence to bear in his favor. The matter probably will be settled at a meeting of the home committee at Columbus, Ohio, June 19.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Teague, who have been visiting the family of Mr. W. W. Wood, left this morning for Kernersville to visit friends.

HONOR MEN.

The Students Who Won Honor and Medals at Bingham.

Correspondence of The Telegram.

The last commencement was the most interesting and successful one held in many years. The Burlington cornet band discoursed sweet music and pleased everyone. In the morning of commencement day, many valuable scholarships and beautiful prizes and medals were distributed. In the afternoon, the athletic contest was much enjoyed and at night the large hall was packed with people to hear the final debate on the subject of "Expansion."

The following students won honors, namely:

The University of North Carolina scholarship, worth sixty dollars—Chas. C. Seawell.

The Herbert Bingham scholarship, worth one hundred dollars—Harry Morrow Heath.

The Washington and Lee University scholarship, worth fifty dollars—Henry Wiley Davis.

The Sallie W. Gray Essay Medal—Edward Van Etten.

The Essay Prize—Gilbert Brown Heath.

The Bible Prize—Charles C. Seawell.

The Penmanship Medal—Tobias Newsom.

The Penmanship Prize—Harry Morrow Heath.

Shorthand, Typewriting and Telegraphy Prize—Robert Enders Linn.

Orator's Medal—Charles C. Seawell.

Debater's Medal—Frank N. McCubbins.

Disclaimer's Medal—Edward L. Stewart.

The Mathematics and Science Medal—William W. Green.

English and History Medal—Edward Van Etten.

Ancient Languages Medal—Harry Morrow Heath.

The graduating class was composed of the following gentlemen: Messrs. Henry Wiley Davis, Edwin Clark, Jr., Harry Morrow Heath, Charles S. Seawell, Frank N. McCubbins, Colie Clark, Kalter A. Simpson, William H. Peden, Harry W. Davant, Edwin W. Barnes, D. Y. Cooper, Jr., William T. Davant.

The visitors at commencement were especially interesting in the samples of improvement in penmanship which were quite remarkable, and also the physical culture charts showing the gains made by the students in general health, etc. These charts showed that the average increase in weight was nearly eleven pounds, in chest expansion, one inch and a half, and in height two and a half inches.

The outlook for the session of 1901-1902 is most encouraging. It is expected that a larger percentage of old students will return than ever before.

French and German have been added to the curriculum. The selection of Prof. Robert Kittrell as teacher of Mathematics and Science puts a very fine man and successful teacher at the head of this important department.

HAD A GOOD TIME.

West End Girls Give a Reception Complimentary to the Boys.

One of the most enjoyable receptions of the season was tendered the young gentlemen of the west end last night by the young ladies of that section. It was given at the hospitable residence of Capt. and Mrs. Charles Lee, on West Washington street. The young folks danced the Virginia reel, played steel partners, and like games until a late hour. The refreshments served were delicious. Those present were:

Misses Ethel Ridge, Carrie Wood, Orie Lee, Bonnie Bishop, Margaret Merrimon, Pauline Pretzfelder, Mamie Walker, Mabel Glenn, Lillian Adams, Bessie Grissom, Dot Thacker, Messrs. Wistar Stockard, Walter Bandy, Wade Stockard, Worth Ross, Tom Beall, Hunter, of Durham, Ed Land, Charles Hunter, of Durham, Ee Land, Charles Creech, Logan Porter, Roland Hill, Elmer Leak, and Vivian Blackburn.

THE ELKS' HOME.

It May Possibly be Located in the Bevil Building on North Elm Street.

Mr. W. E. Bevil is having the lower story of his tobacco factory on North Elm street, opposite the new city hall building, remodeled and made into store room. Mr. Bevil has also had a conference with several of the leading Elks, looking to the remodeling of the entire building, and leasing the upper portion of it to the Elks to be used by them as a club house. As yet nothing definite has been done.

AUTOMOBILE LINE.

Said One Will be Established in This City.

The following article appeared in the Raleigh News and Observer and the Charlotte Observer this morning, accredited by the latter paper, to a special from Winston-Salem. The opinion seems to prevail here that it is a blow at the proposed street railway to be established in this city in a short time. If so it will fall short of its mark. Here is the article:

Arrangements have now been completed to establish an automobile line in Greensboro and to run on the principal street a regular half-hour schedule from the depot to Proximity and to South Greensboro. There will also be a line run to this point, and a diverging line at Kernersville for High Point.

The company is organized and it will be operated as a private concern.

The street line of Greensboro will charge the regular five-cent fare.

Mr. R. Dulaney Whiting, of 100 Broadway, New York, who visited this section last year, with this object in view, went back full of enthusiasm at its practicability; the result is that a large order has been placed for automobiles that will have the latest improved device, the Edison storage battery. They will have a carrying capacity of 25 passengers, besides express and baggage compartment. It is expected that the line will be opened by August 1st. Trips will be made every two hours each way between Winston and Greensboro, and the rate of speed will be 20 miles an hour.

A GOOD JOKE.

One of Uncle Sam's Postoffice Boys Gets Left.

The boys in the postoffice have a good joke on a member of their force, Mr. R. W. Hodgins. They tell on him that he has been quite sweet on a girl in the Lone Star State, and that he has been expecting to make a visit some time in the near future to that State. On Monday he received an invitation to the wedding of the young lady in question and he no longer desires to visit in that part of the country. The boys are teasing him unmercifully about it.

The Show Last Night.

The Shott Bros. show, which was to have given a performance in the city yesterday, failed to do so until last night, when they gave a benefit performance for the Southside Hose Company. A small crowd was in attendance. The show carries no animals, but with the assistance of two men and a canvass gave a poor imitation of a giraffe.

Another Lawn Party.

As before stated the woman's Auxiliary of St. Barnabas church propose having during the summer in various localities, those pleasant lawn parties for which they are known. At their last regular meeting it was decided to hold the first at the rectory next Wednesday night. Those who were present at the recent reception to Miss Mann, missionary from Japan, will remember the charming hospitality of Rector Bell and family.

Fine Illustrating.

The July number of the Delineator, aside from its usual features of interest to women, has several fine illustrations of the Pan-American Exposition. The pictures are reproduced in colors, and are an addition to the publication.

In the Mayor's Court.

The mayor had a small levee yesterday afternoon, and sentenced a few offenders. Those who came before him were, Chas Hargrove, colored, drunk and down, $7.00. John Honeycutt, drunk and down, $4. George Frazier, drunk and down, $7.

W. C. T. U. Meeting.

The South Greensboro W. C. T. U. meeting will be held in the Friend's church tomorrow, Thursday 13th, at 4 o'clock. All members are requested to be present.

At the Academy.

Seats will be on sale for the "Doctor of Alcantara" tomorrow at Fariss' drug store. Admission 50 cents to all parts of the house. No extra charge for reserved seats.

Where the Lawn Party Will be Held.

The lawn party to be given tomorrow night for the benefit of St. Benedict's church, will be given on the lawn in front of the Academy of Music on West Market street.

THE W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

A Most Successful One—Officers Elected.

The Nineteenth Annual Convention of the W. C. T. U., held in Littleton, last week was pronounced a success by the delegates who attended, and the citizens of the town. Four wagons, draped with patriotic colors, and bearing the children of the Loyal Temperance Legion, greeted the delegates on their arrival Wednesday afternoon, singing the State song and also a welcome song that had been prepared for the occasion.

Mrs. Mary E. Cartland, State president, presided at all the sessions and delivered the annual address Thursday evening. Her address was particularly interesting and forcible and was very much enjoyed. The plans as suggested for the year's work were very practical and were accepted by the convention. Every day was full of interest, but the crowning sessions of the convention were the Sunday morning and Sunday evening services. Mrs. Mary C. Woody, the former State president, spoke in the morning, taking for her text "The Ages to Come." If her hearers came to criticize they went away convinced that a gospel message had been delivered with force and clearness. Sunday evening Mrs. Margaret Dye Ellis, national superintendent of legislation and petition, spoke from the theme "God in Government." Her delivery was unaffected, her argument convincing, her bearing womanly, and all felt that the cause of temperance was strengthened in Littleton by the address of the evening.

A protest was read by the Rev. J. M. Rhodes on Sunday evening, signed by many of the leading men of the town, to the article that appeared in the Raleigh Post and was copied in other papers, titled "Carrie is Coming," contributed by some one living in Littleton. The whole was thought to be a farce directed at the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, and, while the women of the W. C. T. U. were too busy in carrying forward the work to which they are called, they did appreciate the many protests by the good citizens of Littleton.

Mrs. Cartland was re-elected State President and Mrs. Craven, of Concord, corresponding secretary. Mrs. F. E. Ross, of Greensboro, was elected treasurer and Mrs. W. H. Osborne, also of Greensboro, recording secretary.

The delegates were mostly entertained at the College by Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes. The hospitality extended and the many kindnesses shown will linger long in the memory of all thus favored.

THE WRONG PLACE.

Bundle of Philadelphia Papers Left Unclaimed at the Depot.

Several bundles, containing copies of the Philadelphia North American, were thrown from the local train South last night. They were addressed to some person in Greensboro, Va., but the mail agents had forwarded them here with a penciled suggestion to try North Carolina. They are still unclaimed this afternoon, and are lying on the platform. It is likely that their destination is Greensboro, Ala.

Forcible Trespass Case.

Walter Girton and John Merrill, two white boys who were arrested charged with forcible trespass upon the property of an inhabitant of the East side of the city, were tried in court this morning. They were acquitted. The judge in letting them go, gave them some wholesome advice about how to conduct themselves in the future. They were represented by Mr. T. J. Murphy.

Wanted for Murder.

Sheriff Lee A. Turner, of Wilkes county, spent last night in the city and left this morning on his return home. He had been to Clayborn county, and was taking back a man wanted in Wilkesboro for murder. The man's name was Louis Moyers, and he spent last night in Guilford jail.

Taking Cannon North.

Three cannon passed through the city this afternoon going to New York from New Orleans. They were small fellows, but looked as though they had seen service, possibly in Cuba.

At the Academy.

Dr. Paracelsus, general practitioner, who has associated himself with Dr. Chas. Scott, will open an office at the Academy of Music on Friday night. Admission 50 cents.

An author states that he received the following communications from editors of magazines recently:

"We would accept your novel but unfortunately our year of fiction has just passed."

"The poems are all that could be desired, but unfortunately our poetry year is now provided for."

We have no fault to find with your two short stories, but our short story year has been arranged for."

"The humorous notes you send us would be acceptable, but for the fact that our humorous year is now full."

That author has decided to wait four years before he tackles those magazines again.

BILLVILLE LITERARY NOTES.

The poet Jenkins had a shave on Wednesday last. He hopes to make enough, by the middle of August, to have his hair cut.

The recent dinner of the Historical Novelists was largely attended. Sardines were served in great quantity, and every novelist had on a collar.

Very few of our authors will go to the seaside this summer, as swimming in the mill pond is just as healthy, and more economical.

While our leading poet was peacefully sleeping on the railroad track the other day, some one stole his shirt and two type-written poems.

BROTHER DICKEY'S SUNDAY SAYINGS.

Ef hell is in de sun thanks ter der Lord, hit's 95,000,000 miles away!

Some er de churches is changin' dey creeds, but re ol' time Methodist continues ter fall f'um grace in de ol' familiar way.

I don't want poverty, en I don't want riches. All I does want is house rent, groceries and peace in de family.

George Horton, author of "Like Another Helen," is contributing notable work to the Philadelphia Saturday Evening Post.

OVERHEARD IN MEETING.

"Br'er Williams, interrupted an old brother in the amen corner, 'you is givin' out a text dar wid de Bible upside down!'"

"Yes," replied the parson, "en dat's des de way you'll be ef you interrupts me one mo' time!"

"Maria," said the poet, "here's a sonnet for breakfast, an ode for dinner, and a quatrain for supper. Please pass the ice water."

Two prophets have predicted that the world will come to an end in July next. Whereupon Brother Dickey observes that it will be best to stop paying house rent in advance.

LEADING QUESTION.

O world with thy sorrow,
Thy sadness and sin,
What better, we ask
Have we ever been in

Very few of our authors will spend the season abroad, unless a cyclone blows them there.

To Wash Wash-Suede Gloves.

Wash-suede gloves are a comfort, especially in hot weather. They look almost as well, and are much less expensive to wear than light-colored gloves of non-washable kid.

The following simple direction for washing them may be useful to the woman thus inclined to economize:

Wash in clear, lukewarm water, applying castile soap to the gloves and rubbing them through the hands. Continue this process until the gloves are clean and soft; then rinse them thoroughly in clear, cold water and wring between clean white cloths.

After blowing the fingers open hang the gloves up where they will dry slowly, and when partially dry put them on the hands and work them until they are dry and soft.

By following these directions closely you will find your gloves as clean and soft as when new.

Man of Fashion a Shoveler.

St. Louis, Mo.—Arthur Lee Cabanne, a young college man, athlete and social favorite, scion of one of the wealthiest families is shoveling coal into furnaces and performing other tasks of hard labor for $1.80 a day to acquire a knowledge of the manufacture of steel. He has entered a five years' apprenticeship.

Cabanne is a graduate of the Western Military Academy at Alton, Ill., and served as first lieutenant in the Forty-eighth Infantry. He saw service in the Philippines and Cuba.

LIVE BABY IN A SATCHEL.

Came by Train With Baggage— Discovered When It Cried.

Morristown, N. J., June 10.—A live black baby in a black satchel is probably the oddest piece of baggage ever handled by the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western Railroad. It arrived at the Morristown station on the 7 o'clock train Sunday night. James Rutledge, the depot baggage master, did not notice anything peculiar about the bag when it arrived and piled it with the other uncalled for baggage. At 11 o'clock he heard faint cries coming from the heap of baggage. He traced them to the black satchel and found the ebony-hued infant inside, carefully packed in cotton. It was sent to Memorial Hospital where it was said to be probably less than a day old.

The grip was addressed to 21 Ridge-dale avenue. The people living there denied all knowledge of the baby, but early Monday morning the mystery was solved. A man presented a check at the station for the satchel which had contained the baby. The police took him in hand. He said his name was John Booker, that he lived at 21 Ridge-dale avenue, that the check had been given him by his sister-in-law, Lillian Eggleston, who had arrived at his house late Sunday very sick.

The Eggleston woman was found at the address and confessed everything. She said she was 19 years old and had worked for G. H. Stevens of 376 Seventh avenue, Newark. She gave birth to the child at 10 o'clock Sunday morning and wishing to keep it a secret, concluded to go to her sister in Morristown. She says that she thought the child was dead and so put it in the satchel and paid a boy to take it to the station and check it to Morristown. She said she did not call for the grip because when she arrived she was so sick she could hardly get to her sister's house. The baby was ordered taken to the mother that she might nurse it and it is now with her.

MILLIONS GIVEN AWAY
It is certainly gratifying to the public know of one concern in the land who not afraid to be generous to needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr.
King's New Discovery for Consumption
Coughs and Colds, have given away over ten millions trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Chest and Lungs are cured by it. Call on C. E. Holton, druggist, for a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

BRAVE MEN FALL.
Victims to stomach, liver and kidney troubles as well as women, and all feel the results in loss of appetite, poisons in the blood, backache, nervousness headache and tired, listless, run down feeling. But there's no need to feel like that. Listen to J. W. Gardner, Idaville, Ind. He says: "Electric Bitters are just the thing for a man when he is all run down, and don't care whether he lives or dies. It did more to give me strength and good appetite than anything I could take.
I can now eat anything and have a new lease on life." Only 50 cents at C. E. Holton's drug store. Every bottle guaranteed.

THE BEST BLOOD PURIFIER.
The blood is constantly being purified by the lungs, liver and kidneys. Keep these organs in a healthy condition and the bowels regular and you will have no need of a blood purifier. For this purpose there is nothing equal to Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, one dose of them will do you more good than a dollar bottle of the best blood purifier. Price, 25 cents. Samples free at C. E. Holton's drug store.
If troubled with a weak digestion, loss of appetite, or constipation, try a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. Every box warranted. For sale by C. E. Holton, Drug-

A SPRAINED ANKLE QUICKLY CURED.

"At one time I suffered from a severe sprain of the ankle," says George E. Cary, editor of the Guide, Washington Va. "After using several well recommended medicines with out success, I tried Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and am pleased to say that relief came as soon as I began its use and a complete cure speedily followed." Sold by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Mr. W. S. Whedon, cashier of the First National Bank of Winterest, Iowa, in recent letter gives some experiences with a carpenter in his employ, that will be of value to other mechanics. He says: "I had a carpenter working for me who was obliged to stop work for several days on account of being troubled with diarrhoea. I mentioned to him that I had been similarly troubled and that Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy had cured me. He bought a bottle of it from the druggist here and informed me that one dose cured him, and he is again at his work." For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

A GOOD COUGH MEDICINE. It speaks well for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy when druggists use it in their own families in preference to any other. "I have sold Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for the past five years with complete satisfaction to myself and customers," says druggist J. Goldsmith, Van Etten, N. Y. "I have always used it in my own family both for ordinary coughs and colds and for the cough following la grippe, and find it very efficacious." For sale by C. E. Holton, druggist.

Tired

that's all. No energy, no vim, no vigor, no ambition. The head aches, thoughts are confused, memory fails. Life becomes a round of work but half accomplished, of eating that does not nourish, of sleep that fails to refresh and of resting that never rests. That's the beginning of nervous prostration.

"I was very nervous and so tired and exhausted that I could not do my work. One dose of Dr. Miles' Nervine quieted my nerves and drove away the lassitude. Seven bottles did wonders in restoring my health." Mrs. M. E. Lacy, Fortville, Ind.
